Dog’s Feast

Dog has a big plate with meat and peas.

Dog is next to a big green tree.

Three bees are in the tree with a bee hive.
Sequencing: first next last

Dog cleans his home.
The pals have a feast.
Dog speeds up.

Dog’s Feast
Dog wants to have a feast for his pals.
Dog makes peach pie.
Dog slips on a leak and cuts his feet.
Dog sits in his seat and weeps until his pals come.
Dog and his pals make a good team at the end.

Dog's Feast
Dog's Feast

1) What does Dog get at the shop for the feast?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2) Why do the pals make a good team?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

(c) Elise Lovejoy
Express Readers