

Dog And The Sloth

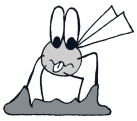

(c) Elise Lovejoy

(c) Elise Lovejoy

7

"Buck up, Sloth ! I can fix this problem. I will invent a lift."

Sticky Words

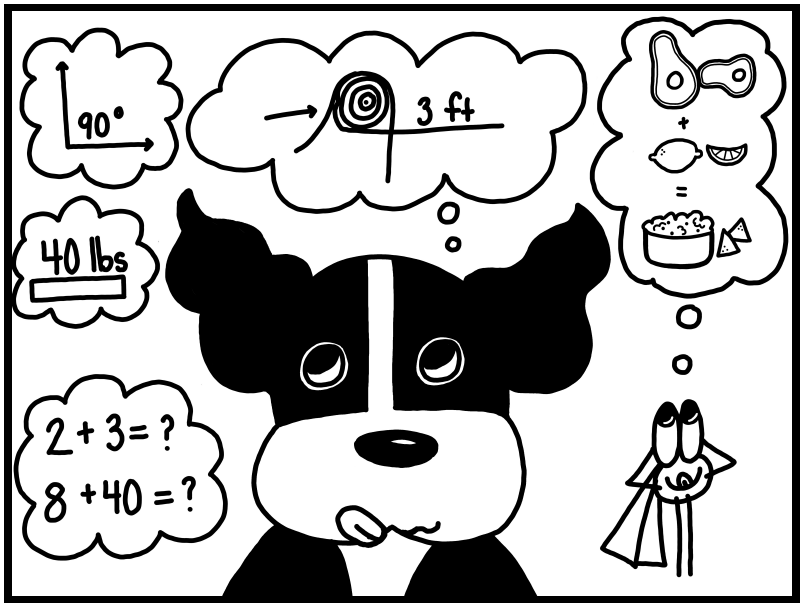

to for come from the he does do see puts of consonant digraph:

th

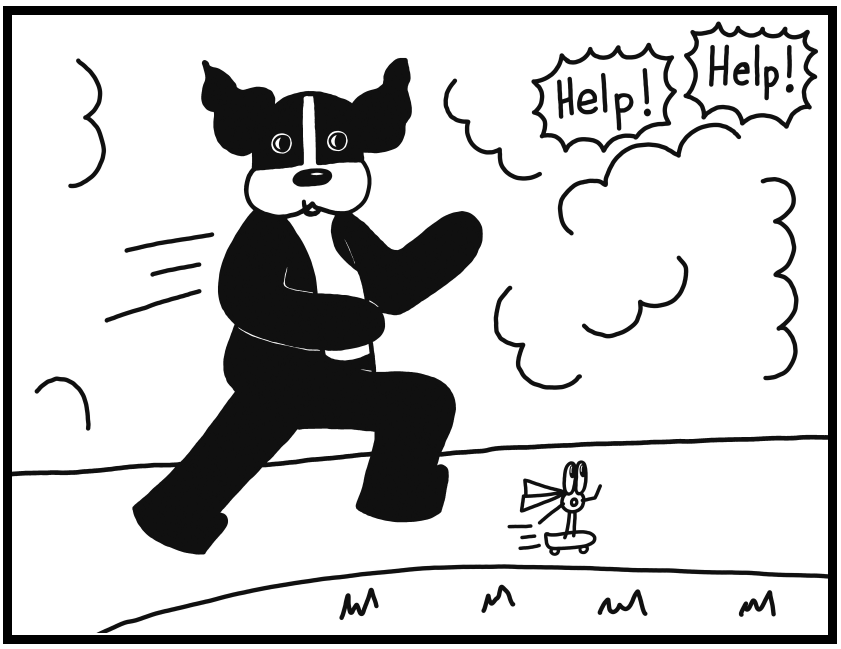

8

Dog can help, but he must do the math. The lift must pull up a bath with a big width and depth.

(c) Elise Lovejoy

(c) Elise Lovejoy

1

Dog jogs on a path next to a thicket. Sobs and yelps for help come from within the thicket.

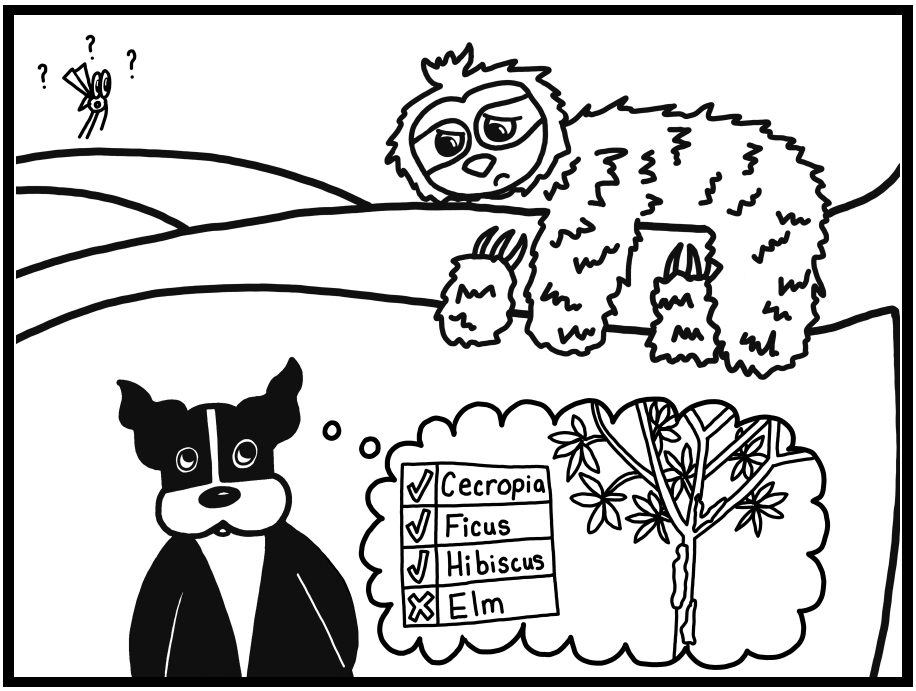

(c) Elise Lovejoy

9

Dog jogs the path back to get a second-hand bath at a thrift spot, "Thrift on Fifth."

2

(c) Elise Lovejoy

He spots a sloth in an elm. An elm is not tropical ! Is the sloth lost?

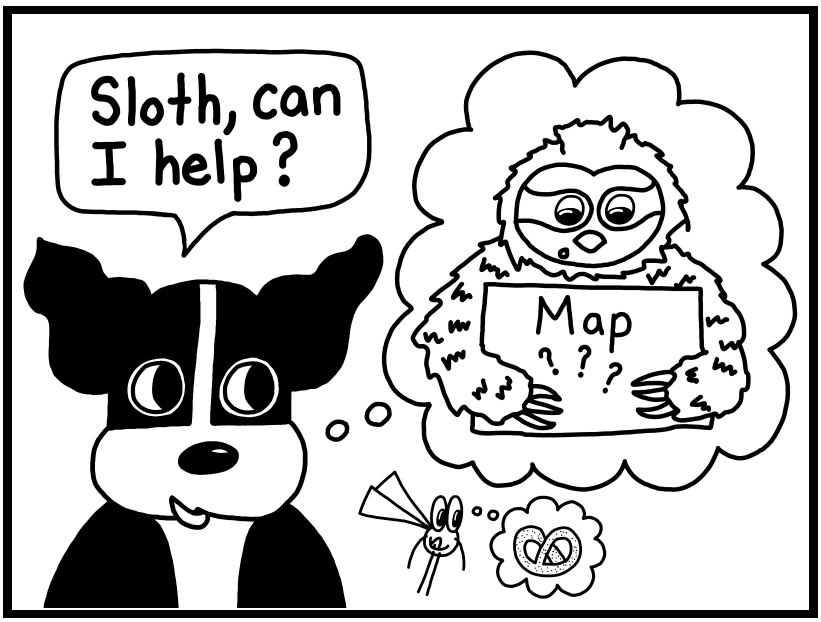

10

(c) Elise Lovejoy

Dog lugs the bath back to the sloth's spot. He lifts the bath up with his lift-method.

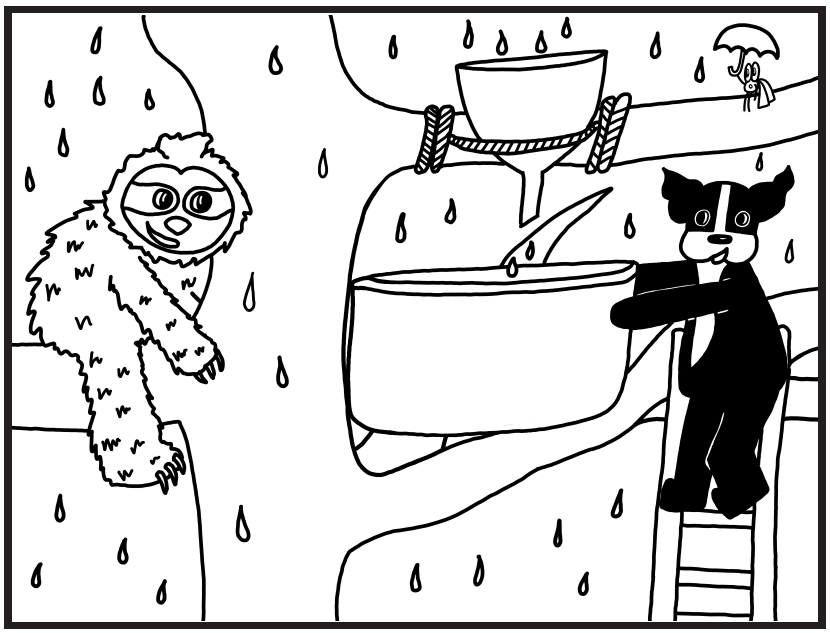

(c) Elise Lovejoy

3

Dog yells up, "Sloth, can I help? A sloth comes from the tropics, but this is not a tropical land."

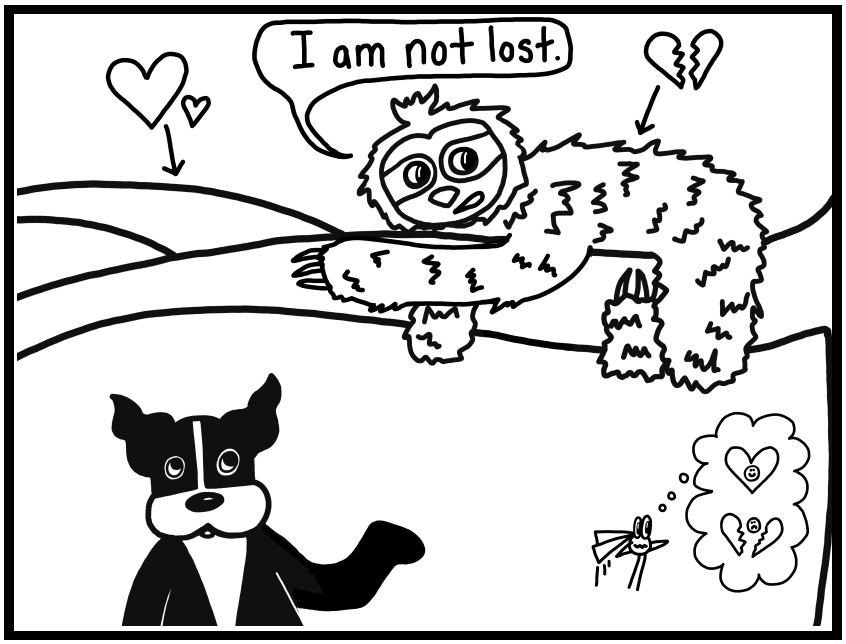

(c) Elise Lovejoy

11

He puts a funnel that will grab drops to fill the bath. Then, the tub sits in the sun to get hot.

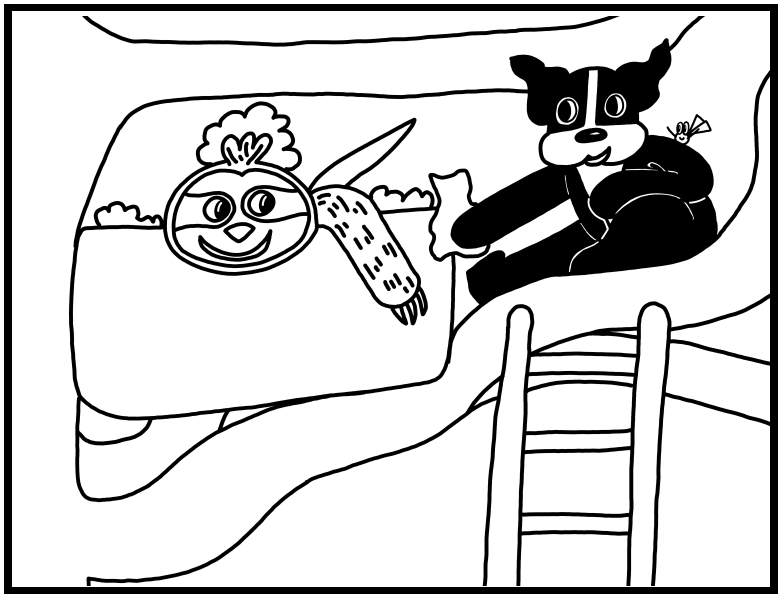

4

"Dog, I am smitten with this elm. I am not lost, but I have a thick film of moss on my back that I cannot get off!"

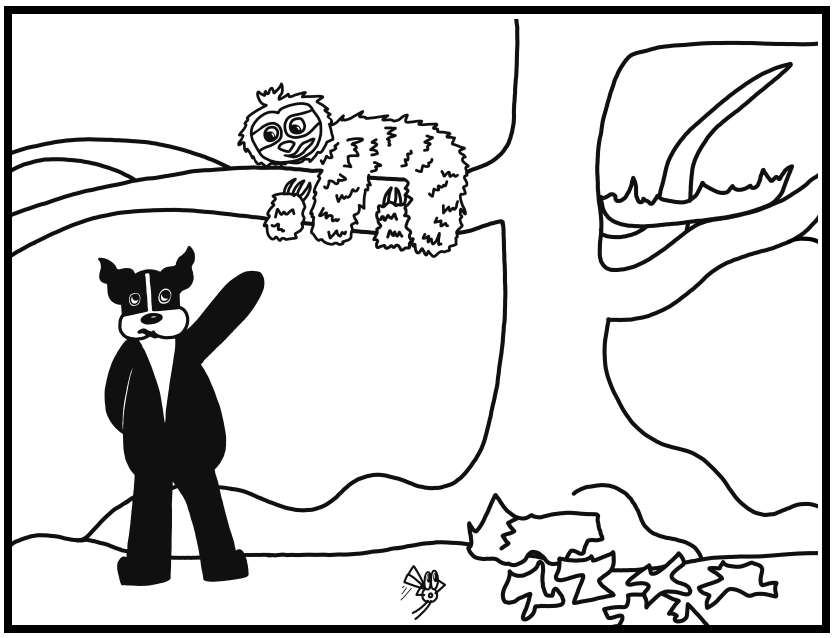

(c) Elise Lovejoy

12

Dog helps his sloth pal. With a cloth and suds, the sloth and Dog can get rid of the moss!

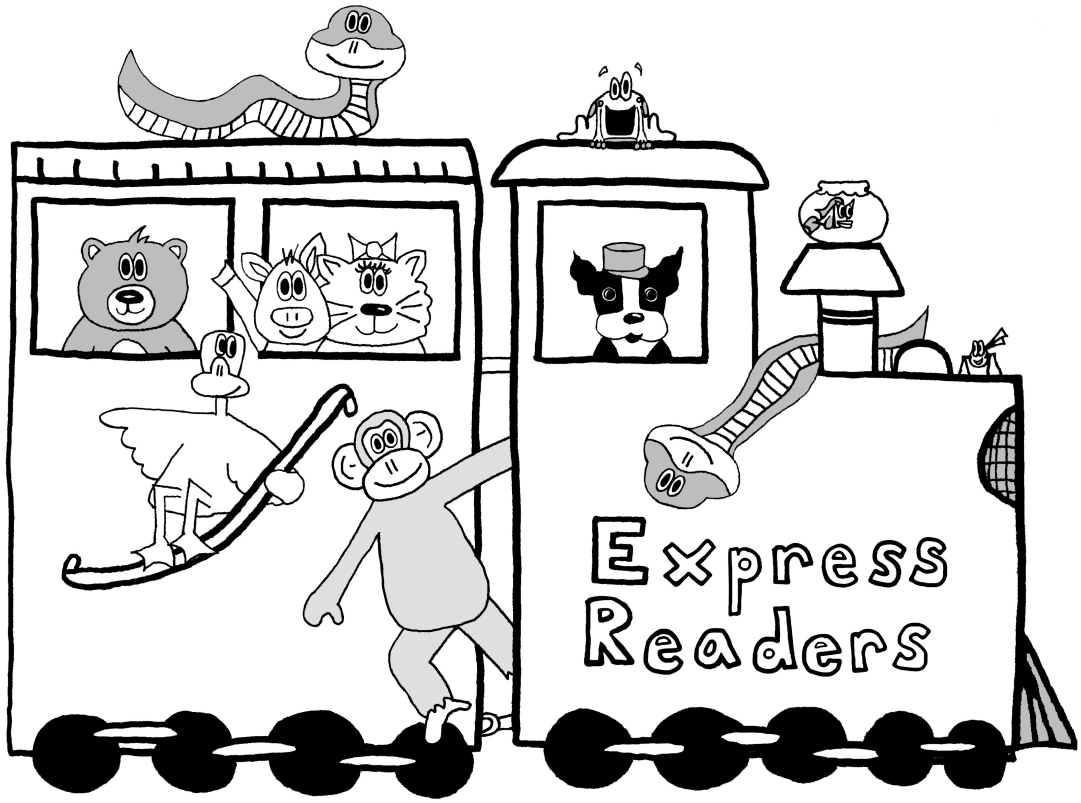

(c) Elise Lovejoy

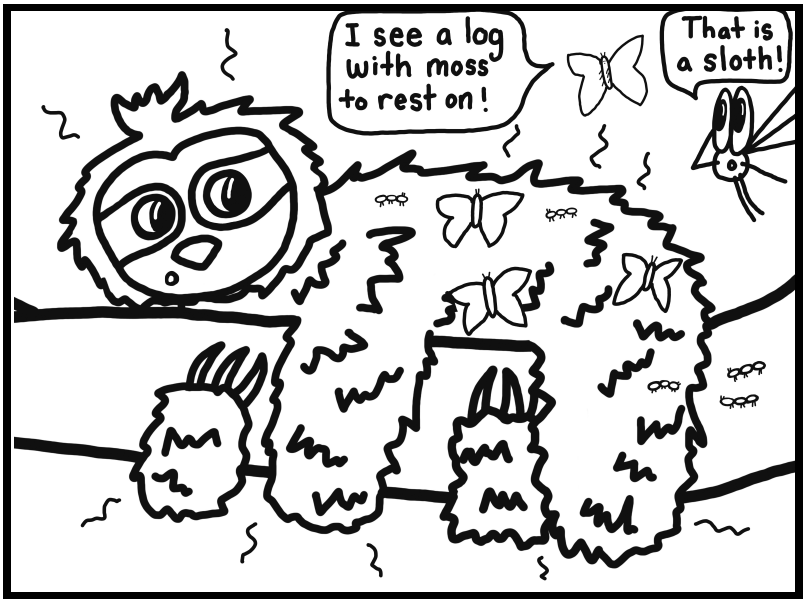

"I had a bathtub, but last month, in a big wind, it fell with a thud. I am a mess with this moss on my back."

(c) Elise Lovejoy

(c) Elise Lovejoy

6

(c) Elise Lovejoy

The moss has a smell that does not thrill the sloth. The insects and the moths see the sloth as a log.

Back Page

Express Readers

www.expressreaders.org

(c) Elise Lovejoy