

Pig's Shed

(c) Elise Lovejoy

(c) Elise Lovejoy

Pig gets his pals to help. The pals can mesh talents and skills to finish the project.

New Sticky Word	Old Sticky Words
are	for to the see of from he

sh

-ed ending /ed/

-es ending /ez/

multisyllabic words

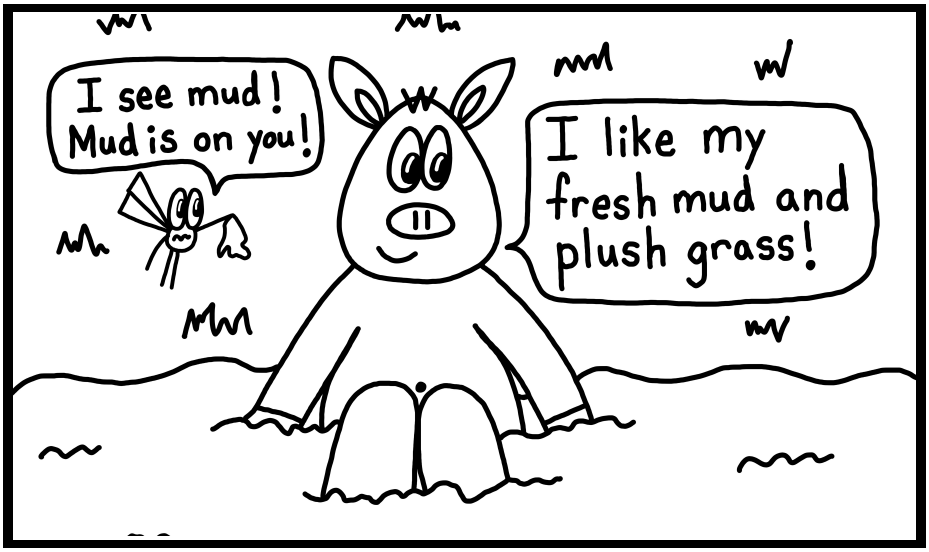

10

Duck drafts a plan for a shed. Next, Duck jots a list and rushes to the shops.

(c) Elise Lovejoy

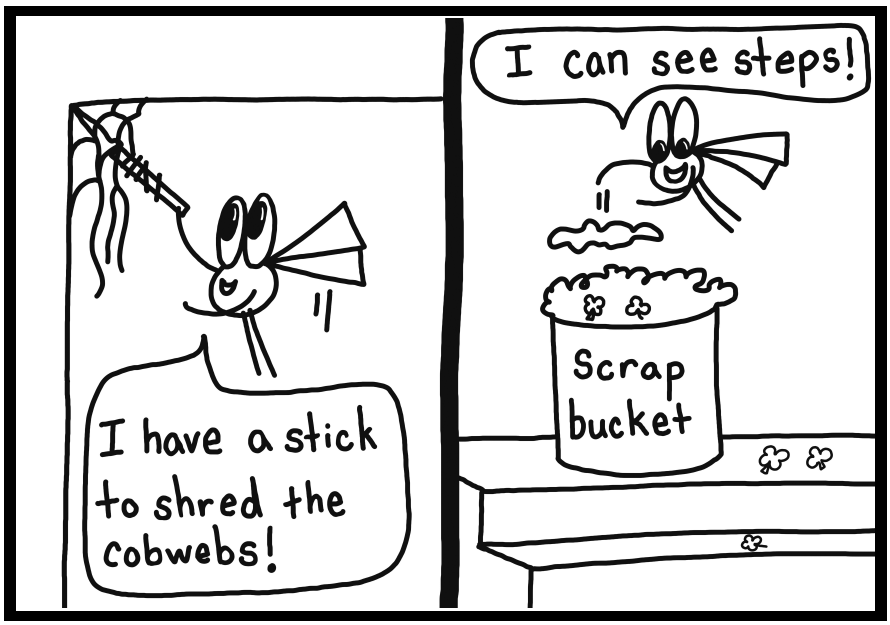

(c) Elise Lovejoy

1

Pig has a pig pen. Pig's pen has plush grass and fresh mud. It is not bad, but Pig wishes for a spot to crash in at sunset.

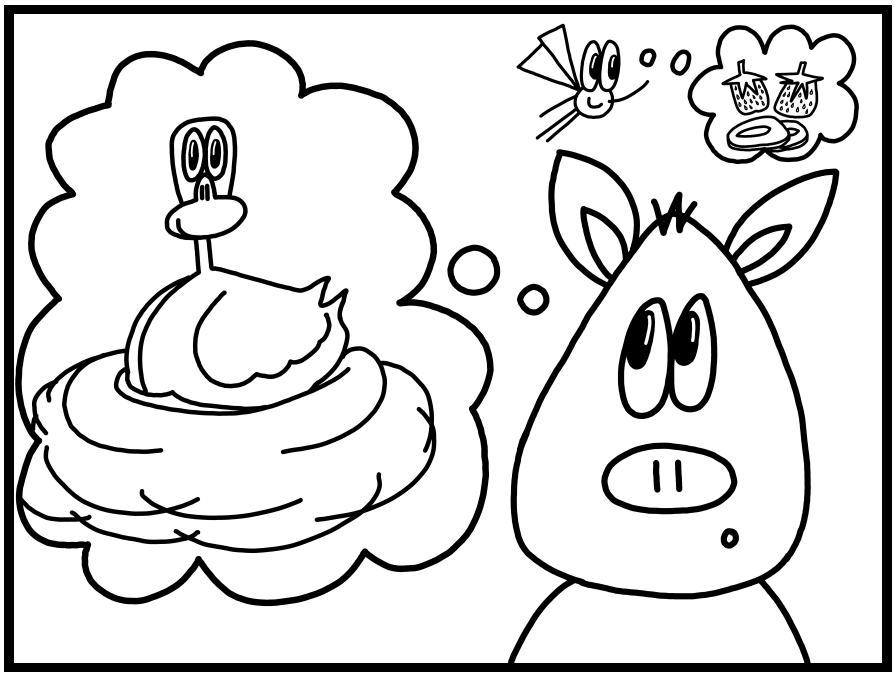

(c) Elise Lovejoy

11

In a flash, Bug shreds the cobwebs. He slashes at the shrub of shamrocks. The shamrocks vanish !

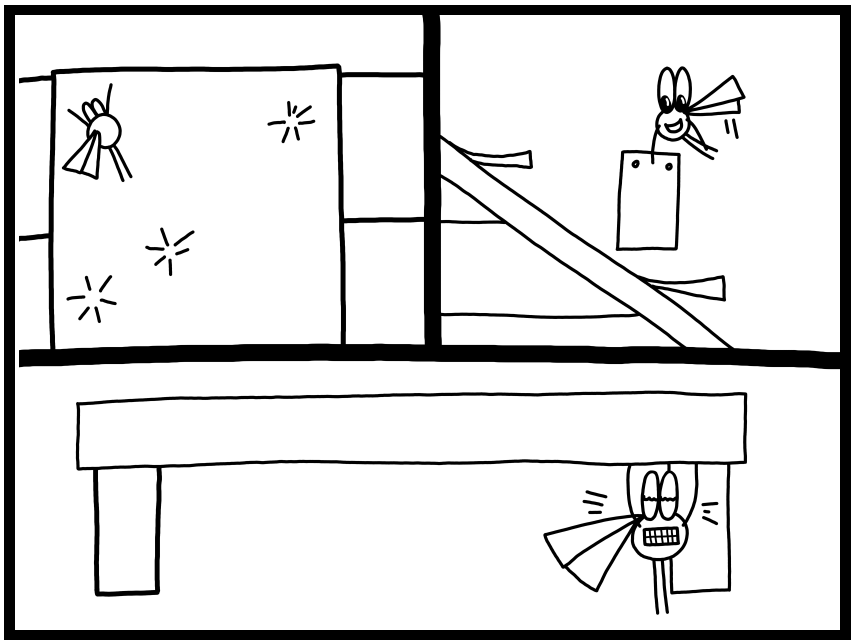

2

His pal, Duck, has a nest. The nest is the best crash pad for Duck.

(c) Elise Lovejoy

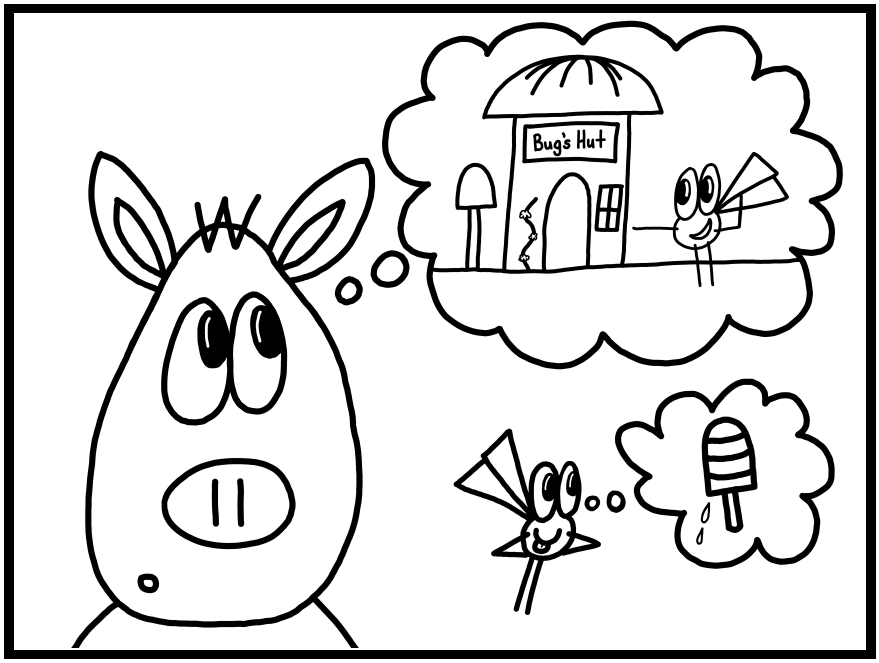

12

Bug lifts and connects the panels on top. He fits in glass. Bug fixes a shelf.

(c) Elise Lovejoy

(c) Elise Lovejoy

3

His pal, Bug, has a hut. Bug relishes his spot. It is not spotless, but it is a fit for him.

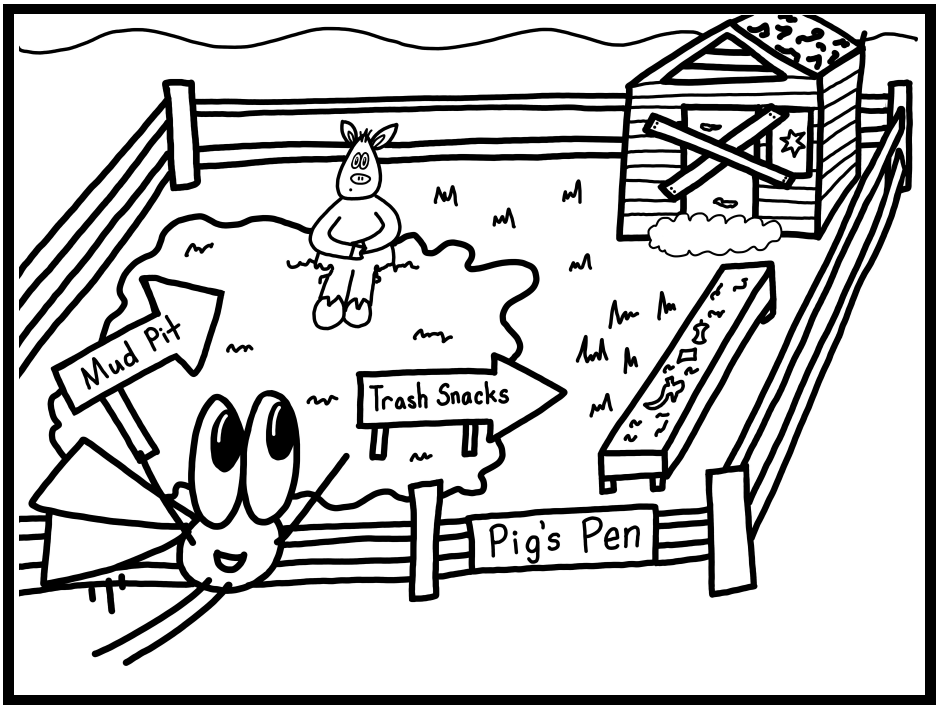

(c) Elise Lovejoy

13

Pig brushes on a splash of reddish polish and a bit of gloss. The gloss adds a dash of glitz and glam.

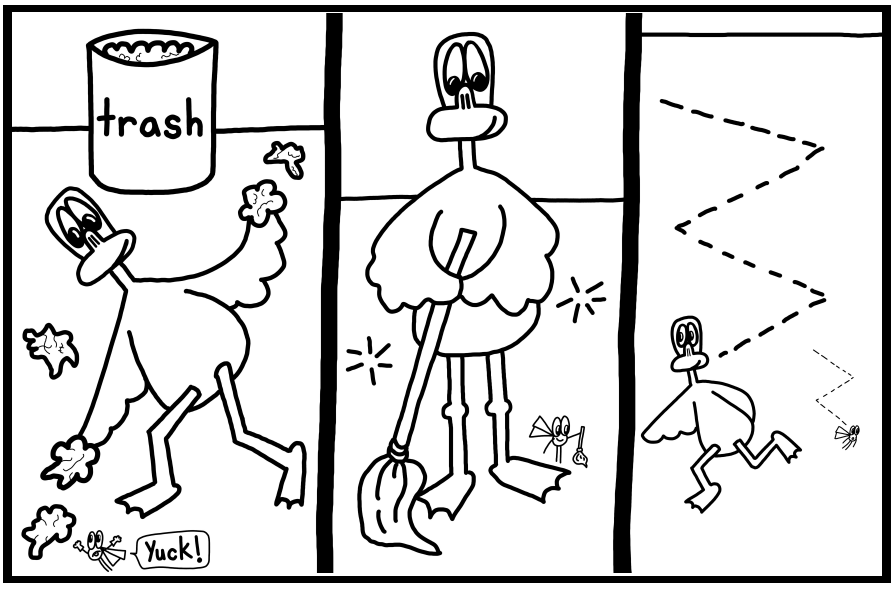

4

(c) Elise Lovejoy

Pig has a shed on his lot, as well, but...

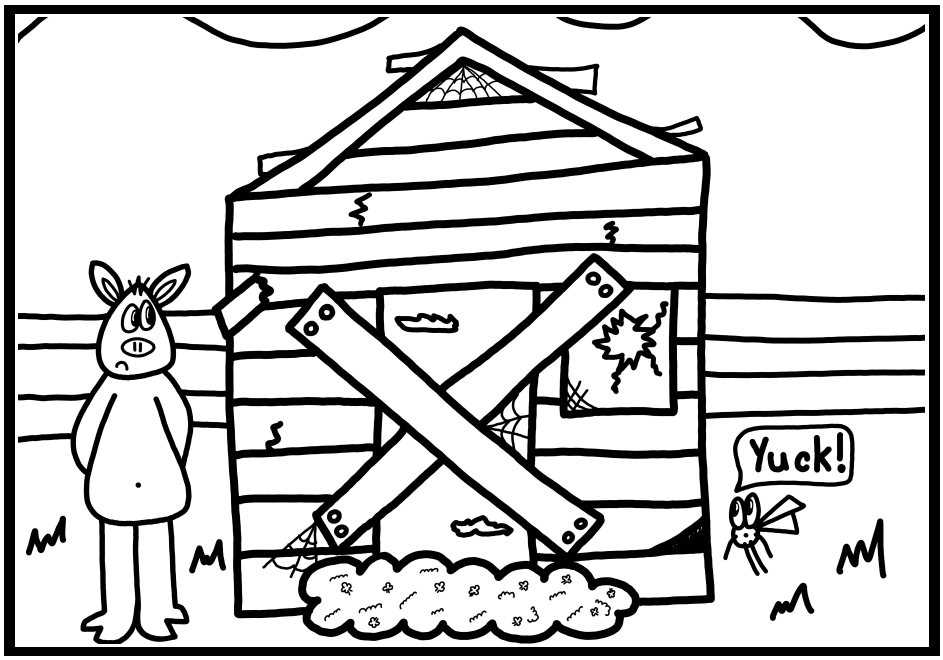

14

(c) Elise Lovejoy

Duck picks up trash and swishes his mop. He dashes and freshens until the shed is spic and span.

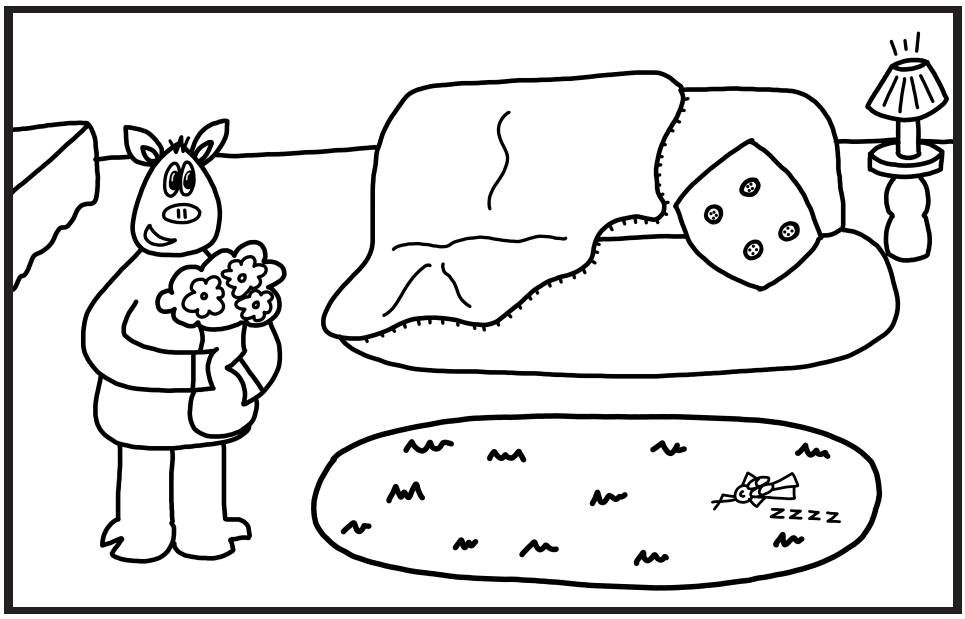

(c) Elise Lovejoy

5

...it is a dump. The slats shift in the wind, and the top panels stick up. The shed's steps are hidden in shamrocks.

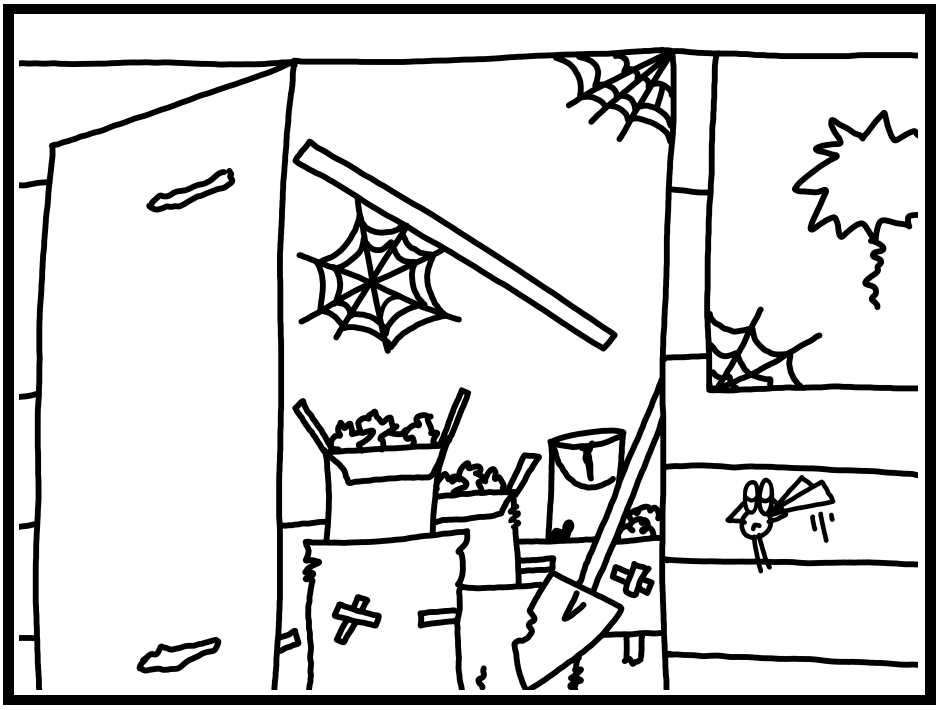

(c) Elise Lovejoy

15

Pig freshens up the shed with lush blossoms, a shag rug, and a soft pad.

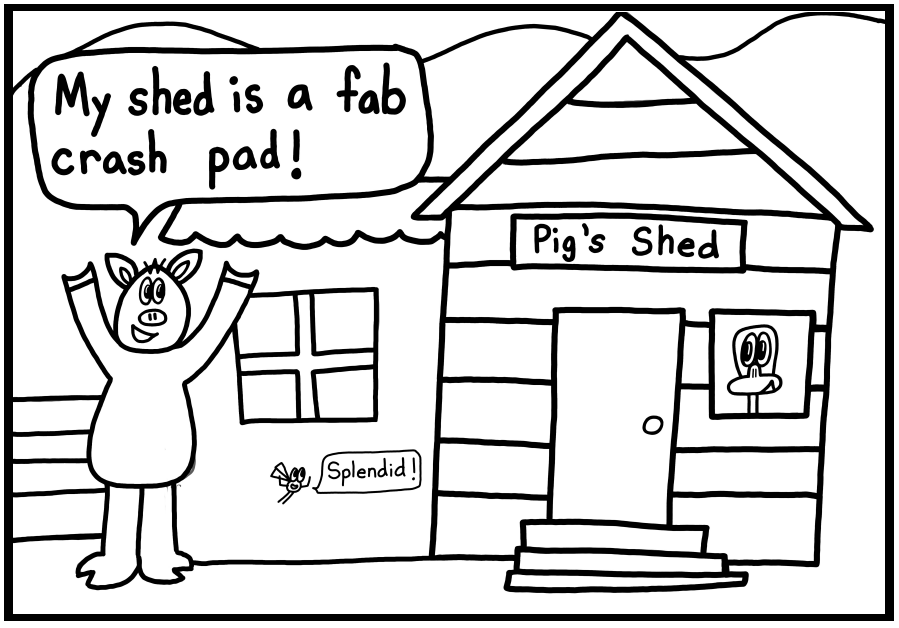

6

The shed has cobwebs and cracks.
It is just a shack full of trash.

(c) Elise Lovejoy

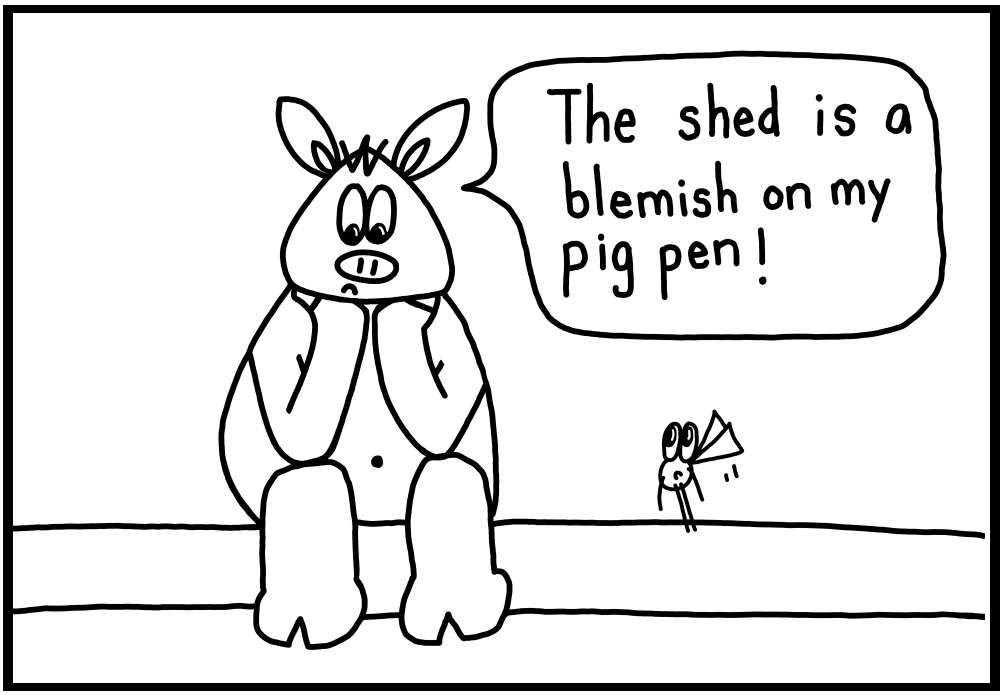

16

The pals constructed a fab crash pad for Pig!

(c) Elise Lovejoy

(c) Elise Lovejoy

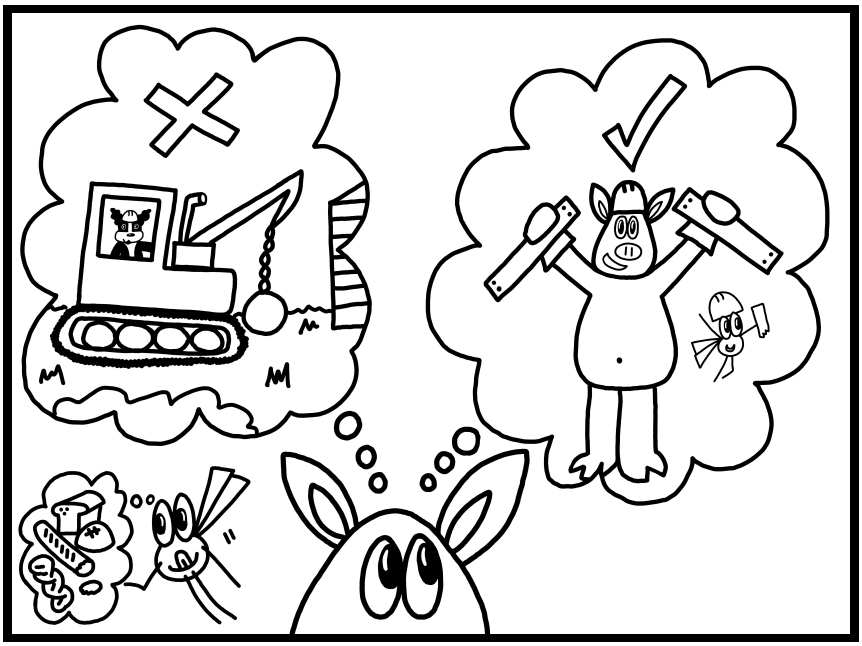

In a nutshell, the shed is busted. The shed is a blemish on the pig pen.

(c) Elise Lovejoy

8

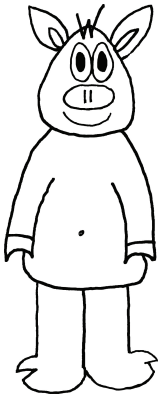

"I cannot demolish the shed, but I can strip the bad slats, expand, and freshen it up."

(c) Elise Lovejoy

Back Page

Express Readers

www.expressreaders.org

(c) Elise Lovejoy